Advisor: Christine Hurst

"I am only one; but still I am one. I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; I will not refuse to do the something I can do."

— Helen Keller

High School has taught us many things; one lesson has been the importance of individuality. It is important to know who you are and what you stand for. This is what makes you a stronger person and it gives you the ability to get what you want out of life. Do not focus on what is important to others but what is important to yourself. You cannot do everything or please everyone and make yourself happy at the same time.

The experiences you are part of will stay with you for the rest of your life. They will teach how to grow and accomplish all that you desire. Therefore, enjoy your carefree days of school, but also work hard so you can achieve more in life when high school is over.

As editors we would like to give thanks to the following people . . . Ms. Hurst, thanks for not only being a good advisor but also a good friend. We will truly miss the times we've shared (especially the times you yelled at us). Next we'd like to thank John Schillinger for "hogging" the camera . . . no one could have done a better job than you. Excellent work! Finally, we would like to thank the staff for putting up with our many moods and daily gripes. You guys worked hard and we appreciate it.

In Loving Memory

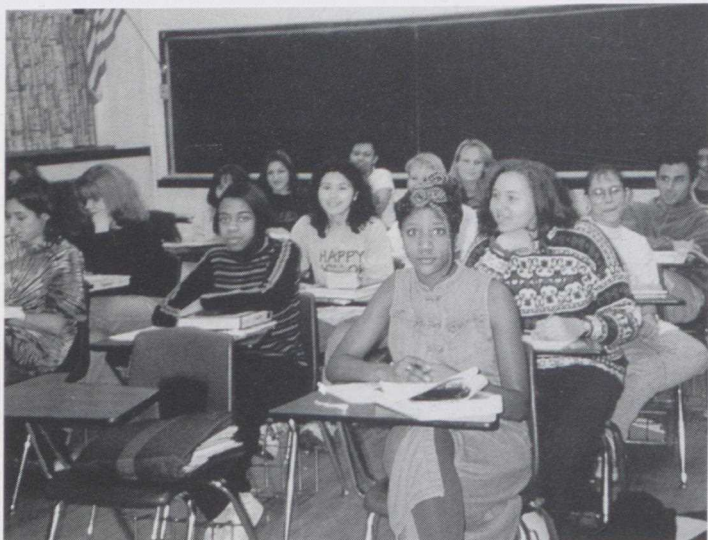

Amanda R. French

"A ship sails away and we see it no more, but we know it is going to some other shore. Our dear ones pass on and we see them no more, but we know they are waiting on some other shore."

— Helen Steiner Rice

Amanda gave beauty and meaning to many lives. She will continue to live forever in our hearts and we will cherish the memories.

Tyger records and hearts are broken

"The season wasn't what I expected. We had a good team and I had high hopes for the season, but things didn't go our way," explained Zac Bletz. The Tygers ended their season with 5 wins and 5 losses.

One of the major downfalls of the season was the injury to Levi Walls during the summer two-a-day practices. Senior E. J. Cutliff expressed, "It hurt me personally because I hated to see my best friend not be able to play his senior year." Levi would have contributed to the team by playing guard on offense and outside linebacker on defense.

The season opened against Columbus Independence where Jeremy Butts hit Jake Soliday for the first touchdown of the season. Other highlights included the OHC victory over Marion Harding and the win over Lexington where the seniors finished out their high school football careers. In addition, records were broken and set by the Soliday brothers. Jake Soliday broke the school and Mansfield area record for all-time leading receptions (71) and yardage (1,231) as a receiver. Jeff Soliday broke and set a record for all-time leading passing yardage (1,588).

Tyger players that were honored included EJ Cutliff for Most Valuable Player. First team OHC went to E. J. Cutliff, Jake Soliday, and Tim Debo. Second team went to Leonard Alexander, Kenny Rife, and Issa Melton. Honorable mention went to Craig Montgomery and Zac Bletz. Jeff Soliday was named offensive player of the year.

Coach Gerhardt expressed, "There were many positive aspects of the season. One or two plays in a game could have changed the season. The players fought back and made it a good season."

Effort overshadows record

They Tyger Girls' Volleyball team finished with more victories than their record showed. The record didn't reflect all the hardships the girls had to overcome. The team had to use a majority of their time overcoming the obstacles with their coaching staff. Junior Captain Kasey McCorkle replied, "We stayed focused on the positives and we still had fun. That's the most important thing." This season the girls proved to be a greater challenge for their opponents than in years past. Junior Captain Kelly Kozimor explained, "The key to our success was that everybody got along really well on and off the court. There was a lot more unity than teams in the past." Many of the girls saw this year as a year to shine and several awards were handed out. Junior Megan Frantz was awarded the Most Valuable Player as well as making first team in the Ohio Heartland Conference. Senior Kasey McCorkle and junior Leah Kolb were recognized for Honorable Mention in the OHC. The Captains' Awards went to Kasey McCorkle, Kelly Kozimor, and Megan Frantz. The Coach's Award went to senior Kelly Kozimor while junior Carrie Layfield took home the Most Improved.

Seven of the eleven Varsity team members were seniors. They all agreed they will miss the game as well as the strong friendships they formed. Senior Nikki Shields stated, "I'll miss the friendships; we all got along so well and I'll just miss playing the game."

Perhaps deeming it a time of change best sums up the season. The Tygers closed their season with a number of controversial changes and adversities, but they all agreed that it made their victories and friendships all the more sweet.

Record year goes down in history!

Varsity level soccer at Mansfield Senior High was established in 1990, and until this year no Tyger Boys' Soccer team has ever gone over .500. This year was the exception; the Tygers finished with eight wins, seven losses, and three ties. This became a school record for the most wins and most ties in a single season. In addition, the team finished third in the Ohio Heartland Conference just behind Ashland and Lexington. Senior captain Jessie Miller stated, "The highlight of the season was going over .500 for the first time in Tyger history."

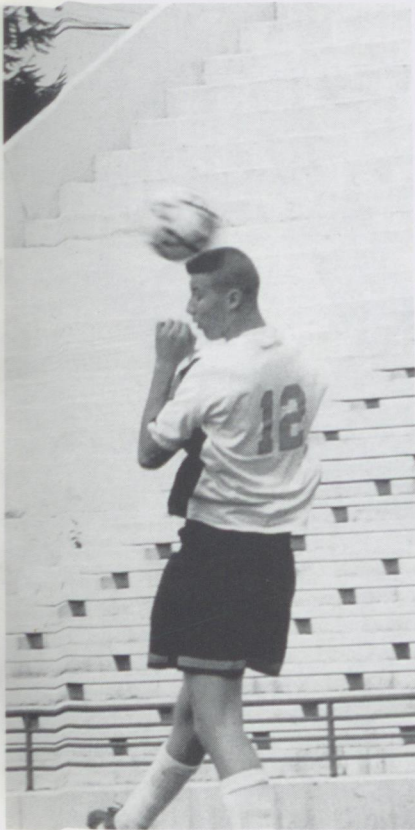

The Tygers had eight returning lettermen who all aided in the Tygers' great season. Among them was captain John Beasley who broke the school record for goals in a single season with thirteen. He also received first team all OHC. The defense leader for the Tygers was Jessie Miller who also contributed on the offensive end with five goals; he was awarded first team all OHC. The other captain was Adam Petty who contributed on both the offensive and defensive ends of the field. earned second team all OHC finished the season with several goals.

Besides the strong leaders from the senior captains, many others contributed to the Tyger success. Jarrod Strouth, a goalkeeper, finished the season with six shutouts breaking the previous school record. Bryan Pres and Jason Gates were awarded Honorable Mention. Other awards went to Bobby Bianchi, Captain award; Jarrod Strouth, Most Improved Player; Jason Gates, Coach's Award; and Jessie Miller, Most Valuable Player. "With this record setting season at an end, we are looking forward to our next season where we will try to continue our success," replied Coach Bowman.

Outstanding athletes highlight season

The Girls' Varsity Soccer team captured a winning season of nine wins and seven losses. They were led by senior captain Alanna Dewiel, junior captain Kim McGinty, and senior standouts Amber and Ebony Bronson. The three leading scorers, Kim McGinty (17 goals), Ebony Bronson (15 goals), and Amy Bartelheim (10 goals) helped contribute to the school record of 69 goals in one season. McGinty's contribution set the school record of most goals by an individual. Another record of highest career goals was captured by Ebony Bronson. Coach Neil Hamilton commented, "It was an exciting year and I'm very proud of the players' efforts." Winning team awards were Kim McGinty and Ebony Bronson for Most Valuable Offensive Players. The Most Valuable Defensive Player award went to Alanna Dewiel and Amy Bartelheim received the Most Improved Award.

The Tygers placed Kim McGinty and Ebony Bronson on first team OHC. Amy Bartelheim, Amber Bronson, Pam Prinz, and Alanna Dewiel earned second team, and Joanne Tiffney and Kary Adams received Honorable Mention. For All-District awards, Kim McGinty received second team award and Alanna Dewiel and Ebony Bronson received Honorable Mention.

In her last year, senior Alanna Dewiel expressed, "I was impressed with our improved team unity. I will miss playing with the Bronson twins." The three dominant seniors along with many others helped contribute to a fulfilling and rewarding season.

Tygers strive for success

"Excruciating training" was how Nick Dewald described summer workouts. Although the Cross Country team officially began their season in mid-August, they got together earlier for distance running so they would be ready to go for this fall sport.

The regular season consisted of eight meets and invitationals. During the competitions, senior Sara Jones claimed she focused on the distance remaining and tried to concentrate on the runner in front of her as she worked her way to the finish line.

The Boys' Cross Country team was successful by coming in third in the conference. Although the Girls' team came in last, they felt they did well despite the many injuries. Nick Dewald also earned the right to run in the state meet where he placed 79th out of 150 individuals.

Various awards were given out at the Cross Country awards banquet. The Coach's awards were given to Katie Denton and Darwin Byrd. Allison Hohenberger and Nick Dewald received the Most Valuable Runners. Team captains were Jeromie

Barnhart, Allison Hohenberger, and Sara Jones. Most Improved were Davidette Brent and Bryce Hart. Fourth year varsity awards were retained by Sara Jones and Allison Hohenberger. Finally, the Speed Brody Award was given to Nick Dewald. This award is given to a team member with an attitude that befits a runner.

"The girls had a rebuilding season," summed up Coach Jackson. They didn't have many girls participate due to early season injuries. In addition, Coach Jackson was excited about the Boys' team since they made it to the Regional Championships. Finally, the entire team expressed high hopes for state next year.

Practice makes progression

"The season was a big improvement from last year; we came together as a team," stated senior golfer Aaron Wiegand. Intense practice every night was the strategy with the golf team; it paid off with much improvement and pulled the team closer. The only way to get better is to play constantly. Billy Link proved this statement with the award for the Most Improved Player.

The most significant betterment for the team was the average number of strokes for each game; they cut the average down by fifteen strokes. This progression caused the team to become more competitive. On this higher level, they won one match and tied four. Helping to better the team's average was John Brightbill who was awarded Most Valuable Player. Andy Laderman received the Captain's Award.

The Tyger Golf team obviously overcame many obstacles from last year. The cut back on the average team strokes, the team unity, and the competitiveness were the team's attainments. The season was concluded with a great sense of accomplishment.

New coach brings motivation

Beginning the season with a new coach was an obstacle for the tennis team. Having only two senior players was another. Sophomore Sara Kohler announced, "We're a young team; but by our senior year we will be well developed." The team struggled at first, but by mid-season they pulled their act together and concentrated on the game.

First year coach Tucker Baquet brought a new outlook for the team. In the past, the ladies played to learn. Baquet motivated them to use what they learned to win and become more competitive.

Team togetherness was an important quality of the Tygers. Their close friendships kept each other motivated and focused throughout the challenging season. This closeness helped the doubles teams play well together. The first singles position was played by Jackie Bell. Teresa we had a lot of fun."

Beer and Shannon Smith took on the second and third singles positions. First doubles was played by Rachel Demyan and Emily Schadler while second doubles was held by Katie Nichols, Sara Kohler, and Renee Obermeyer.

Despite having a less experienced team, the Lady Tygers found success. The record for this season was five wins and eleven losses. The players not only improved their record as a team, but improved themselves individually. According to the players the highlight of the season was at Marion Pleasant where the girls captured their first win.

The award for Most Valuable Player went to Jackie Bell as did the Captain's Award. The Coach's Award was presented to senior player, Teresa Beer. Shannon Smith was the recipient of the Most Improved Player.

The season saw the Lady Tygers achieve many of their goals. Sophomore Jackie Bell proved herself by reaching the sectional tournaments. With seniors Teresa Beer and Renee Obermeyer graduating, the 1997-1998 Lady Tigers' Tennis team looks to bigger feats; this year's success gives them hope.

"This Magic Moment" is so different and so new "Words cannot explain it; it was the biggest rush of my life!" exclaimed the new 1996-97 Homecoming queen Heather McReynolds.

"This Magic Moment," the theme chosen by the junior class, was magic indeed. Everything from the decorations, to the attire, to the attendants and escorts made it obvious that the junior class put in much hard work and time to make this Homecoming successful. Advisors Mrs. Stefaneck and Mr. Sawyer both agreed that the hardest part of homecoming was coordinating everyone and getting them to work. However, this didn't stop them from presenting one of the best homecomings so far.

make a change in the program when the senior attendants were to find out who won the title of queen. Instead of using the traditional flowers, the junior class decided to use balloons: gold for the queen and silver for the two remaining attendants. This process made it more interesting and noticable for the audience.

"I was surprised at how well everything turned out and overjoyed at the results," said Angie Chinni, Homecoming Chairperson. As usual, some people were unsatisfied with the music and some complained about the lack of formal attire. The dance, altogether, turned out much better than expected with an additional 500 tickets sold solely at the door.

Junior class president Ricardo McCrary offered next year's committee this advice: "Include everyone in your job and remember that holding an office is not just a title; it's a responsibility!"

Tygers get groovy

From prehistoric times to poodles skirts people boogied-down at the Blast From the Past Dance. When it came to costumes there were many unique ideas. Ideas for outfits came from parents' closets, the Salvation Army, Goodwill, and old yearbooks. Jodi Dean replied, "I dressed in the 70's era because it was my favorite decade."

Another good thing about the past was the music and much of it was played at the dance. Chad Crider admitted he was partial to the song "Jet Airliner" by The Steve Miller Band. Tyron Crawford commented that he enjoyed the "car wash" theme music played that night.

When it came right down to it, the decorations seemed to set the mood. Mrs. Kay commented that she really liked the Christmas lights that hung around the gym. Some of the other attendants of the dance enjoyed the strobe lights, blue lights, and even the sawdust on the floor.

In Jackie Bell's opinion the most represented decade was the 70's. This time period consisted of polyester, plaids, and bells. The 50's attire consisted of t-shirts, bobbie socks, and poodle skirts. Greg Maglott was named the "Dancin' Machine" because of his groovy dance moves.

The dance was a great success for both Student Council and the students who attended. Ticket sales permitted them to raise some money and the students had a far-out time. Peace!

Achievements overcome expectations

The season marked a new beginning for Tyger basketball. Not only did they have a new coach, but there were only two returning lettermen (Dubrey Black and Jake Soliday). The team consisted of a variety of new faces with no player over six foot four. Expectations were very low for the season; picked to finish last in the conference, they went well beyond what was anticipated.

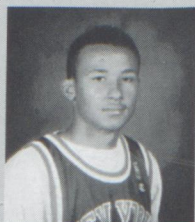

Senior Dubrey said of first year coach Gregg Collins, "He cares about his players, tries to push them to realize their potential, and is more strict than past coaches." As for the greatest and worst moments of the season the team was almost unanimous in their decisions. Most thought of the Pickerington game as the worst. Usually the first game of the season is a time to get the pre-season wrinkles out, but not too many were ironed out in that one. The boys showed a lot of inexperience in a 57-43 loss. They soon rebounded and showed the form they had for most of the season. Winning the OHC Conference was a main highlight. "We were not favored at all and it seemed we had a chip on our shoulder. Winning the conference title meant so much to us, even if we had to share it with Lexington" exclaimed senior Jake Soliday.

The year ended in the district finals with a heart wrenching overtime loss after a lengthy and well played tournament run. Conference awards went to Dubrey Black (first team), Marquis Sykes (second team), and Antwayn Reynolds and Jake Soliday (honorable mention). Javelle Likely received the Most Improved award while Most Valuable and the Vern Hoffman coach's award went to Dubrey Black. With a J.V. team that went 20-0 and many returning lettermen coach Collins thinks the future of Tyger basketball is promising.

Season spotted with highlights and stars

"The first game against Madison was definitely the low point of the season. It made the team realize how superficial our unity really was," remarked Kim McGinty on the 36-72 loss.

Guided under the leadership of seniors Shala Crawford, Amber Bronson, Ebony Bronson, and junior Megan Frantz, the Lady Tygers were able to rebound from the devastating loss and capture a winning season of 13-7 which included a win over Madison at their second meeting. Terra Beard replied, "The 74-72 win over Madison was my most memorable game. Everything clicked and we were able to show our doubters that we were able to rise to the occasion."

The Lady Tygers were able to extend the season by winning the Sectional title and advancing into District

Semi-Finals.

Winning awards for the Lady Tygers were Ebony Bronson with the Coach's Award, Shala Crawford and Megan Frantz with the Captains' Awards, Terra Beard with Most Improved, and Shala Crawford with MVP. Crawford was named Third Team All Ohio, First Team All District, and First Team OHC. Ebony Bronson was named Second Team All District and Second Team OHC. Also receiving area recognition were Dionne Goodwin and Terra Beard with OHC Honorable Mention.

The Lady Tygers dedicated their season to their coach, Andrea Thompson. Shauntaye Gamble remarked, "Not only was her perseverance inspirational, but her love for us made us strong."

Spirit prevails through adversity

Challenges and adjustments preceded the girls' cheering season. The loss of a coach gave way to confusion and resulted in a missed opportunity for summer camp. However, the girls were able to find leadership under new coach Lisa Stanford. Darshie Goodwin commented, "Our new coach put us back on track." Many cheerleaders chose the basketball game against Madison as their most memorable game. Junior Whitney Braggs declared basketball season to be her favorite because the closeness of the sport provided a better opportunity to involve the crowds. She responded, "The spectators really got involved in the 'Tyger Rumble'."

The squads achieved the goal of working well together. Junior varsity cheerleader Monica Smith's personal goal consisted of advancing her jumps and helping to improve the squad's choreography. "The key to our good cheerleading season was communication within the squad," acknowledged Whitney Braggs.

Awards were given out to confirm the dedication and hard work of the members. Jenny McElvain captured the Most Spirited and the Most Valuable awards. The two year varsity awards went to Whitney Braggs and Jenny McElvain. As the awards banquet came to a close, Robyn Melton and Sharon Stanford topped it off by being awarded the Captains' awards.

Boys endure challenges and success

"On your mark, get set, BEEP," was the phrase that began every swim meet. The season began with many obstacles. Nevertheless, the team came out on top with a successful record of 8-3. Captain Shaun Jourdan commented, "The practices were tough but the end result was rewarding."

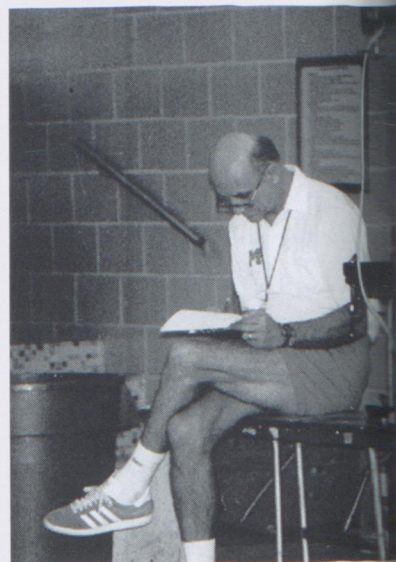

Despite having a small team, the Tygers pulled together to create a winning season. "They had a great season for only having eleven people," commented Coach Bartholow.

The season called for a tremendous amount of dedication consisting of practices at 5:30 a.m. as well as at 3:30 p.m. The strenuous effort by the team members allowed them to achieve their goals. Their main goal was to "get as many swimmers to the District Meet at Bowling Green as possible," stated Nick Dewald. The team accomplished this by sending diver Tom VanHarligan and swimmers Mike Sigg, Shaun Jourdan, Tim Kulka, Kevin O'Neill, Tim Leist, Nick Dewald, Richard Sigg, and Matt Secrest.

Traditions were an important factor to the boys' swim team. They recited the Lord's prayer before each meet, held pasta parties, and tortured the underclassmen. Singing songs before each meet also pumped them up for the competition.

At the annual awards banquet Tim Kulka received the Most Improved award and the Most Valuable Swimmer award. The Coach's Award was presented to Shaun Jourdan. Finally, the Diving Award was presented to Tom VanHarligan.

Girls splash back

At the end of the previous season, the girls' swim team declared that it was a rebuilding year. At the end of this season it was clear that the girls had roared back with a vengeance.

The girls closed their season with an undefeated record of 11-0. They claimed an undisputed title of the OHC as well as the Sectionals title.

Seniors Jenny Exten, Kasey McCorkle, and Anne-Marie Welsh agreed that the win over Ashland meant the most. "We had been waiting four years to beat Ashland. It was a great way to top off the season," claimed Anne-Marie.

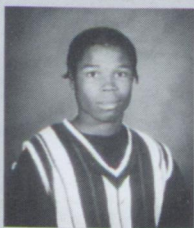

Individually, many of the girls excelled as well. Freshman Katie Finnerty was named OHC Swimmer of the Year after taking two individual first places. She also won the 100 yard backstroke at the Sectionals and placed third at Districts. Freshman Amanda Love earned the Most Improved Swimmer award. Junior Joanne Tiffney also took home two individual victories as well as taking first in the 500 freestyle at Sectionals and advancing to Districts. At the end of the season, Joanne was voted Most Valuable Swimmer by her teammates. Junior Stephanie Marchant took first place in the 50 yard freestyle at Sectionals before advancing to Districts. Leah Kolb finished fourth at Districts before moving on to State and improving her finish from 17th to 11th.

Besides the notable individual performances, the depth of the girls' team prevailed.

Wrestlers grasp an unmatched season

Sweat, dedication, and a lot of hard work can only be the components of one thing: wrestling season. The Tygers started their season in September with conditioning which consisted of weight lifting and strengthening exercises. Senior Leroy Williams stated that he will miss the "hard practices" next year.

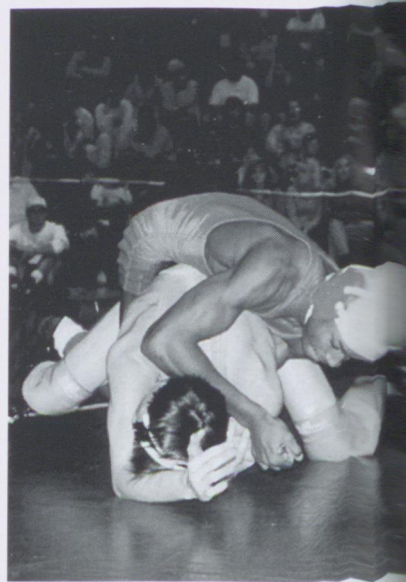

The Tygers came in fourth at the OHC tournament. Individually, Matt Soliday and Ben Amadio came out in first place in their weight classes. A major highlight of wrestling season was the traditional J.C. Gorman Tournament. Junior Roger Merrell became a three time champ and also earned MVP honors. He said that the key to his victory was his confidence. Leroy Williams will remember the Gorman because of a Bucyrus opponent. That match was the first time he ever went into double overtime.

Throughout the season the wrestling team strived for success. They placed high in several tournaments and invitational. At Sectionals they placed 10th out of 15 teams. At Districts they placed 12th out of 54 opposing teams. The District qualifiers were Ben Amadio (160), Roger Merrell (119), and Leroy Williams (215). Merrell and Williams beat out several wrestlers at Districts to qualify for State. Sadly, Williams did not place at State. However, Merrell won State for the 119 weight class. He brought Mansfield Senior the first State championship in 20 years.

At the wrestling awards banquet Roger Merrell received Most Valuable Player and Leroy Williams was presented the Coach's Award. Freshman Adam Shiplett earned Most Improved. The wrestling team captains and third year varsity members were Ben Amadio, Leroy Williams, Roger Merrell, and Matt Soliday. Second year Varsity awards were given to Chad Dunham and Luke Tackett.

The Tygers ended their season full of accomplishments. They finished with pride and a sense of fulfillment. Senior Ben Amadio declared, "I will miss the people and the feeling of family." In all, the season brought individual and team success.

Impressive advances mark track season

"The best thing [about the track season] was the experiences [gained] running against other teams and meeting all the other people from visiting schools," remarked Traci Mask after qualifying for the Regionals held at Oak Harbor. Many Tyger runners felt this way about the 1997 season.

The girls ended their season with an impressive showing at OHC with a second place finish. Aiding the girls to their strong finish, individuals Da'Ren Brooks and Amber Bradford won respectively the 100 and 300 hurdles and the shot put. The 4x100 relay also took a victory at OHC. All seven who were sent to Regionals qualified to run at the State Meet held in Columbus.

The boys also fared well, equaling the girls second place finish in the OHC meet. Jereme Butts placed fourth in the conference in the long jump, while Wash and Wallace Haney had strong finishes in the shot put. Junior Ricky Upchurch remarked, "The highlight of my season was winning the hurdles at districts." Upchurch was also part of a vigorous 4x100 relay consisting of J. J. Dulin, Donnell Bryant, and Adam Burdette which made it all the way up to Regionals.

"Many returning runners along with team unity, enthusiasm, and hard work made the season as successful as it was," pronounced Head Coach Jefferson. With the season to be finished the track banquet was held and Da'Ren Brooks, Daneika Taylor, and Ricky Upchurch received Most Valuable. Most Improved went to Monique Brent, Wallace Haney and John Hess. Teaka Davis, Shawntoya Jones, Capri Pointer, and J. J. Dulin left with the captains awards. Mehock reigns again

Mansfield Senior High's seventy year old tradition made its way back. On April 18, 1997, a new Mehock Queen was crowned.

Receiving this honor was Kim Ferrell, escorted by John Beasley. The court included Daneiaka Howard escorted by Jelani Dulin, Sara Hones escorted by Mike Sigg, Miranda Blevins escorted by Jessie Miller, and Dekila Taylor escorted by Orentheal Williams. These ladies were chosen by the senior class when it came down to deciding who was to take part and represent an old high school tradition.

When asked how he felt about bringing the Mehock Assembly back, Mike Sigg said, "I think it's a great idea to bring back old traditions along with new ideas." Daneiaka Howard replied, "I think the students get into it more because of the larger interest and participation in track as opposed to J. C. Gorman. The Mehock draws participants from many states as well as Canada and involves the community."

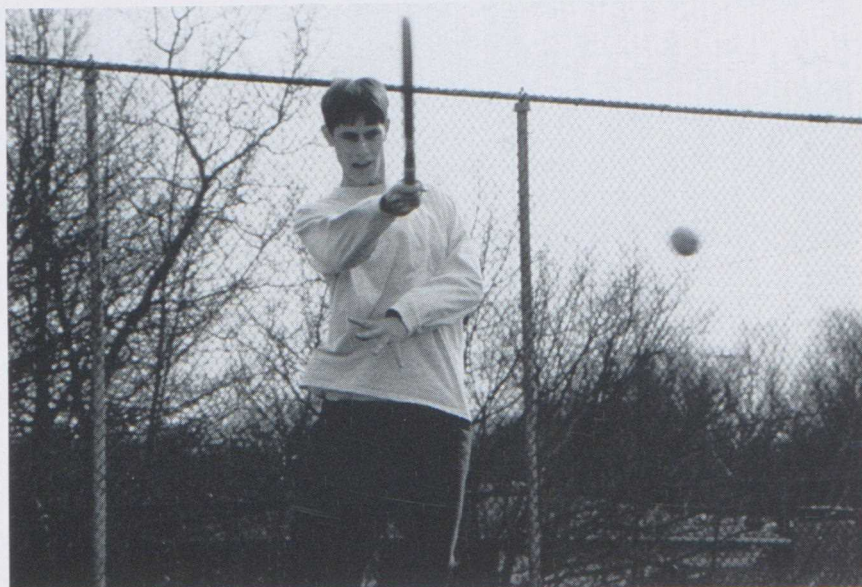

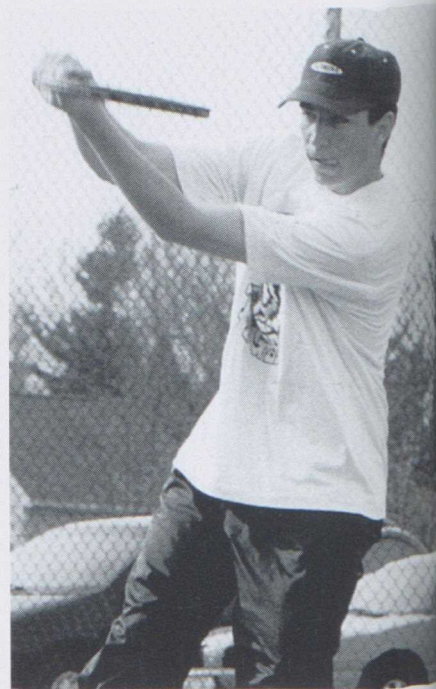

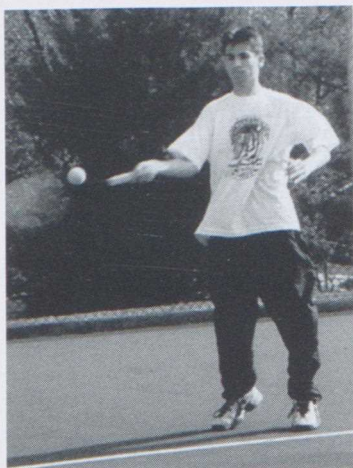

The most memorable moment of the assembly for Jelani was when his representative, Daneiaka, couldn't open her box and everyone yelled, "Bite it!" For Kim it was when she saw the purple bow around the tiger's neck, indicating that she had won the title of Mehock Queen. When Jessie Miller was asked how he felt the assembly went, he declared, "It went nicely. The beautiful set showed the hard work that was put into it and I think it went well for the first year!"

Boys' tennis serves up a super season

The boys' tennis team looked to improve on their dismal 1-12 record from the previous season. Returning for the Tygers were Eric Calhoun, Jason Gates, Chris Stull, Bryan Preston, and Jeff Bell. These five returning lettermen and the three newcomers (Deming Miller, Gines Aviles, and Brian Carbetta) made up the Tyger team.

With these members, the Tygers looked to have a successful team. The season started off slow, but they soon established themselves as a strong team and as a potential threat in the Ohio Hartland Conference.

By the end of the season, the Tygers ended up with a 7-8 record and they looked to stir things up in the OHC tournament. "A fourth place finish in the tournament was a disappointment for our much improved team" replied senior captain Jason Gates.

The Tygers participated in the Sectional Tournament in Sandusky and three of the five groups won the first round, only to lose in the second round. "We had an overall good season and we plan to add to our success next season," exclaimed Bryan Preston.

The Most Improved player award went to Gines Aviles. The Most Valuable Player award went to Eric Calhoun. Jason Gates received the coach's award and captain's award for the 1997 season.

Loss of seniors winds up baseball season

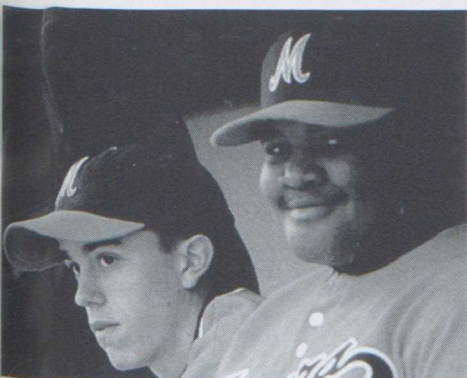

Many of the varsity Tyger baseball players found the second game against Ashland to be a high point of the season. At the bottom of the fifth, the Tygers began to come back from a four to two deficit. They defeated Ashland 6-5, tying them for second place in the OHC.

"It was a satisfying season in terms of wins and losses, but I am unhappy to be losing five guys who have been around for three and four years" commented Coach Windbigler in reference to John Beasley, Zach Bletz, Tim Clark, and Jake and Jeff Soliday. This loss included all but one of their pitchers.

When commenting on memorable moments, Coach Windbigler declared, "Tim Clark's home run rocketing over the right center fence and Jeff Soliday's line drive which caused the third baseman to duck were among my most memorable." The players agreed that the season was successful. "I feel that it was one of Senior High's best seasons, despite a few losses," reflected Zach Bletz.

The highlights of the season were put into focus at the awards dinner held at Ryan's Steak House. The most home runs and RBI's went to Jeff Soliday who scored eight and 37 respectively. Brennan Gibson earned MVP and John Beasley and James Diehl took home Most Improved. Those receiving conference recognition were Brennan Gibson and Jeff Soliday (first team), Tim Clark and Zach Bletz (second team), and John Beasley and Jake Soliday (Honorable Mention).

Improved record shines

Perseverance and dedication elevated the Mansfield Senior High softball team to a higher level this year with an improved record of 8 and 11. Lady Tyger Sara O'Brian said she felt the improved record was due to the team's hard work, unity, and confidence. The team's strongest attributes were pitching and catching which reflected the team's increased work ethic. "I worked all summer long to refine my pitching and make it more consistent," commented pitcher Michelle Pina. "It really paid off during the season."

"One of the biggest disappointments was the team didn't receive the official recognition it deserved," remarked Racheal Ferrari. Kiesha Brooks was awarded first team OHC with Allison Bond getting second team. Honorable Mention was received by Kary Adams and Michelle Pina. Team awards included Brooks accepting Most Valuable along with highest batting average. Jenny Stapleton obtained Most Improved, Michelle Pina was granted the Coach's Award, and Kim Ferrell earned the Captain's Award.

The season was capped with two grand slam hits by Brooks against Mansfield Christian and also the dark horse win over Shelburne. Latacia Boswell said beating Whippets was definitely a high light because the season was started off in the right direction with an unprecedented first win. "It gave us confidence we needed to set our goals higher. With only one senior graduating this year, it will be easier for us to continue where we left off next season," remarked Boswell.

Awards highlight Tyger music department

"We played much harder music this year, but we pulled together and put on some of our best performances," replied senior Anne Welsh. These great performances by the music department led to a record setting year for awards.

The Tyger Marching Band received awards for the overall best band in the Halloween and Labor Day parades. The Symphonic Band earned straight ones in District Adjudication and won first place overall in the Chicago Music Festival. A new, special band award called the Brit-tany Ling award was presented to Jamie Letizia because she had an enthusiastic attitude in class. This award is a scholarship to be used for anything musical such as repairs or lessons.

"We work well as a group; our unity and strength as a whole have contributed to our success," choir member Kelly Hristovski declared. Their strength was definitely proven with straight ones in Districts and a superior rating in state competition. This was the first time in eleven years that a Senior High choir has accomplished this. They also traveled to Chicago and received third place for a mixed choir, while the jazz choir obtained the award for the best ensemble out of thirty schools.

The Orchestra also did well; they received a two in the State Adjudication. In Chicago they accepted the first place overall award for a full string Orchestra. They also provided the music for many memorable school assemblies.

Many goals were successfully accomplished and even exceeded, making for a triumphant year. The students worked hard and came together to put on some outstanding exhibitions.

Drama takes the spotlight

Mansfield Senior High's Drama Department impressed many audiences this year. Succeeding most of their goals, the members put on another musical, performed more shows, and had a good time in the process.

Drama's full-length performances included "Angel in the Bronx," "Raisin in the Sun," and "Fiddler on the Roof." All were successful and received support from students as well as community members.

Diversity was a positive aspect of the drama department. "You get to work with so many different people," explained Tim Debo. Most students are drawn to theatre because they feel stepping into a character allows them to express themselves. Robin Hastings commented, "I knew I could use my talent to entertain people, just like others entertain me."

Although the drama department has gone through many changes there are still traditions which are carried out before each production.

Hadley Lehman explained, "The traditions are called 'Pinkies' and 'Shakedown.' They help calm the nerves of the performers."

The drama department mastered accomplishments and memories. The diversity of the members and the traditions brought the casts closer together, making each production worthwhile. The department will continue to succeed its goals, as more students are drawn to theatricals.

Yearbook and Newspaper come alive

Making history is what the Newspaper and Yearbook staffs accomplish. The two groups provide entertainment as well as information to the students. Both Newspaper and Yearbook are classes that are offered to qualified, dedicated students.

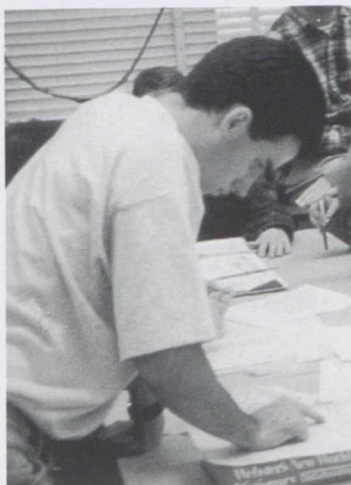

The Newspaper students work diligently to produce the Hyphonerian. They cover all types of issues ranging from school functions to social concerns. "When I wrote my first editorial I was so nervous," commented Editor-in-Chief Sarah Bistline. Newspaper advisor Mrs. Kay commends all her staff on their writing abilities and the common sense they displayed.

The Manhigan staff works hard all year long to create a year of history. They have input on every aspect of production including photography. Senior John Schillinger admitted, "It was the first time I really picked up a camera." All yearbook students gained experience working in a stressful environment and felt a sense of accomplishment once they were able to see the yearbook come together.

The publication staffs compose the Newspaper and Yearbook with pride. Each class worked hard in all areas and aspects of creation. It was a challenge and an honor to be part of such a tradition.

Prom leads way to hours of excitement

Friends, fun, and partying until sunrise were some of the elements that made prom 1997 a success. The evening got underway as the couples walked down the navy and silver entrance at the Masonic Temple. The hall was decorated by the senior class prom committee under the guidance of advisors Miss Hurst and Mr. Cawrse.

After the dance was kicked off, votes were cast for prom king and queen. E. J. Cutliff and Robyn Melton were elected as the royal couple.

Donning their crown and tiara, the two danced to the theme song "Tonight's the Night" by the popular group Blackstreet.

The dance dwindled down at midnight, but the prom goers knew the night was just beginning. Pizza, pop, and prizes accompanied disc-glo bowling at Park Lanes. Finally, the gala shifted to Pickles Along the Tracks. A few raindrops didn't stop the sand volleyball players while the rest of the partyers were serenading their friends with karaoke.

"The diversity of music played at the dance was a highlight of the night. Too often, the DJ resorts to one type of music which limits the opportunities for all to enjoy some dancing. Fortunately, our prom committee under the guidance of class president Aaron Wiegand made sure that the music represented the variety of prom goers. The fact that the dance floor stayed crowded until midnight reflected that," replied Miss Hurst.

Class of 1997 sends 277 forward

Members of the class of 1997 gathered together for the traditional Class Day ceremony which marked the beginning of the commencement activities. This formal ceremony included the announcing of numerous awards and scholarships. Sarah Bistline and Mike Sigg were named Valedictorian and Salutatorian respectively.

Senior class president Aaron Wiegand thanked his class for the memories and recognitions they had gained over their years together. Aaron also performed the duty of passing down the privilege and responsibility to the junior class president Silas Walls.

On commencement day, the seniors gathered together for the last time in the gymnasium to accept their diplomas. Valedictorian Sarah Bistline encouraged her class members to accept the notion that each one of them could make a difference in society. Mike Sigg's Salutatorian address contained a similar message of the need for each of them to focus on individualism.

Finally, the school board members invited the class to march forward for the awarding of their diplomas. As the seniors returned to their seats they were given roses by the class advisors. Friends and family members cheered as they were pronounced graduates.
